

MASS OBSERVATION

12th May

Diary page

Gender: _____ How did you hear about the diary day: _____

Age: _____ Location: _____

Please use extra sheets if necessary

"I donate my 12th May diary to the Mass Observation Archive. I consent to it being made publicly available as part of the Archive and assign my copyright in the diary to the Mass Observation Archive Trustees so that it can be reproduced in full or in part on websites, in publications and in broadcasts as approved by the Mass Observation Trustees. I agree to the Mass Observation Archive assuming the role of Data Controller and the Archive will be responsible for the collection and processing of personal data and ensuring that such data complies with the DPA."

Agreement Mass Observation 12th May Day Diary

This is an agreement between the Mass Observation Archive and

Please add name of your school/organisation:

By returning this signed document, you agree to the following terms:

- 1 Each individual day diary will be completed anonymously on the forms provided.
- 2 Parental consent has been gained to allow for the submission of the day diary if the contributor is under the age of 18.
- 3 The diaries should not include real names, contact details, or the personal details of the people mentioned. Please remember that these diaries will be read and used for research and teaching, so don't include anything that may identify you or others.
- 4 The diaries should include brief self portrait: your age, where you live, your relationship status, your present job or occupation if you are working and any other information that you think is important to record.
- 5 If 12th May was a typical day for you please say so. If not, please say why it wasn't. Any reflections on the day and on how you felt while keeping the diary are welcome.
- 6 The collection of anonymous day diaries will be sent in a single batch to the Mass Observation Archive.

Signed:

Position:

School/organisation:

Dated:

Please return your completed diaries to:

The Mass Observation Archive
The Keep
Woollards Way
Brighton BN1 9BP